

Let's sing together

Title: Mary, you're so beautiful

Text: Daniele Ricci
Music: Daniele Ricci

The most beautiful in the world
The most beautiful on earth
So beautiful God has chosen you
In heaven, you're beautiful
In paradise, you're beautiful
So beautiful heaven sings to you
And if the blue sky contains in itself
A sun, a big ball of fire
You're the biggest blue sky
Because you bore
The sun who is Jesus

Mary, Mary, you're so beautiful like heaven
Heaven is in you
Mary, Mary, you're so beautiful
By imitating you, we will truly be like you. (2x)

You're the mother of all
You're the mother who is all love
Of that infinite love who is Jesus
You're the mother of everyone
You bring us all together
We can live as family.
When we love each other, Jesus is with us
Then in our hearts
Love keeps on growing
When we love, we give Jesus to the world
In this way we are like little Marys!

Mary, Mary, you're so beautiful like heaven
Heaven is in you
Mary, Mary, you're so beautiful
By imitating you, we will truly be like you. (2x)
