

Give and you shall receive

Rebecca from the United States shared her experience:

focolare
movement

“One day a new girl named Sophie came to my school. No one wanted to be with her because she was poor.

I saw Jesus in her and so I went up and said hello. Then I gave her my colored pencils.

The next day was my birthday and I got a whole packet of new colored pencils!”

Esp 201210