Title: The happiness of loving

Text: Daniele Ricci
Music: Daniele Ricci

I once liked toys and colored gifts that I received and then I liked to watch TV!
I liked to eat laugh and dance at parties with my friends,
It is all so beautiful, but then...
These are my little joys,
That fill the emptiness within my heart says it is not enough:
the happiness that they bring last only for a moment!
But... true joy... where is it? I ask?

Be the first to love always! Love always
This is the joy of loving
The joy that never ends!
See Jesus says
Love always, love always!
The joy of loving, the joy that never ends!
Love always, love also your enemy,
this is the joy of loving, the joy never ends!
If you love you happy will be!

Love is a special gift that fills our hearts with happiness
It seems that it will never end
And everyone on earth can really find this happiness
If love it is all they want to learn
I know what I will do!
To the whole world I will share
This happiness I feel within
I tell my mom and dad my brothers and my sisters
This gift of love I bring.

Be the first to love always! Love always
This is the joy of loving
The joy that never ends!
See Jesus says
Love always, love always!
The joy of loving, the joy that never ends!
Love always, love also your enemy,
this is the joy of loving, the joy never ends!

If you love you happy will be!
If you love you happy will be!
If you love you happy will be!
