

It's such a joy to love one another!

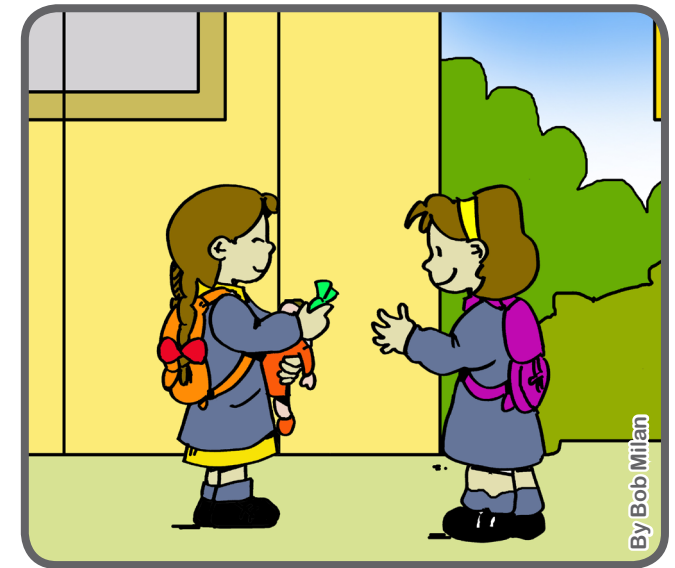

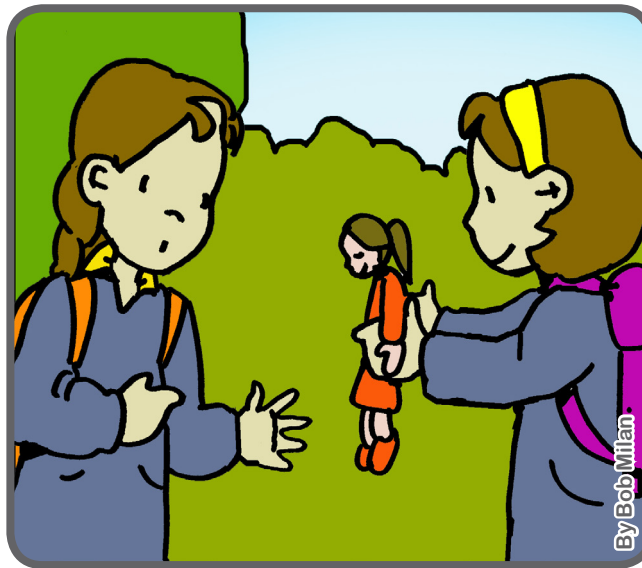

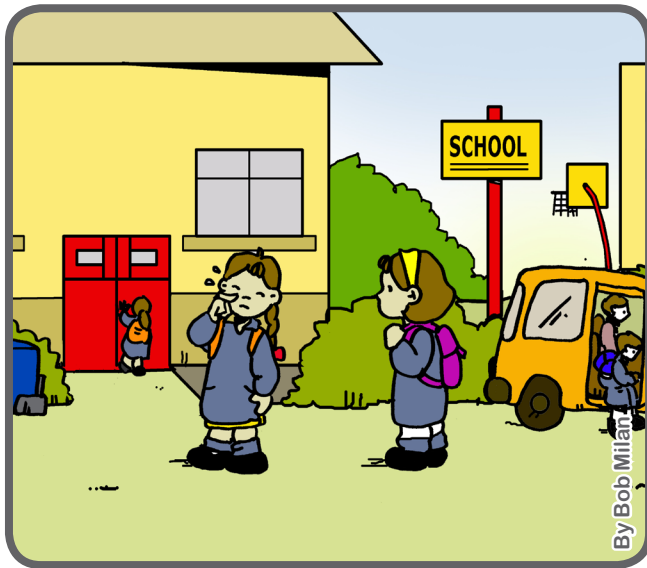

focolare
movement

Charlotte from the United States told us:

“When I got to school I saw Elisabeth crying.

I stayed with her, and to make her stop crying, I let her play with my doll.

She stopped crying and gave me a piece of candy. I was happy because we were loving one another.”

Esp 201204