

Let's welcome Jesus in the other person!

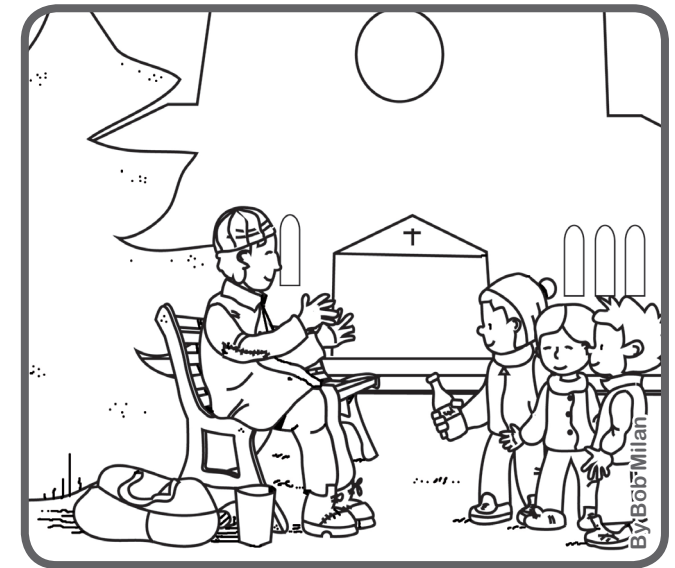

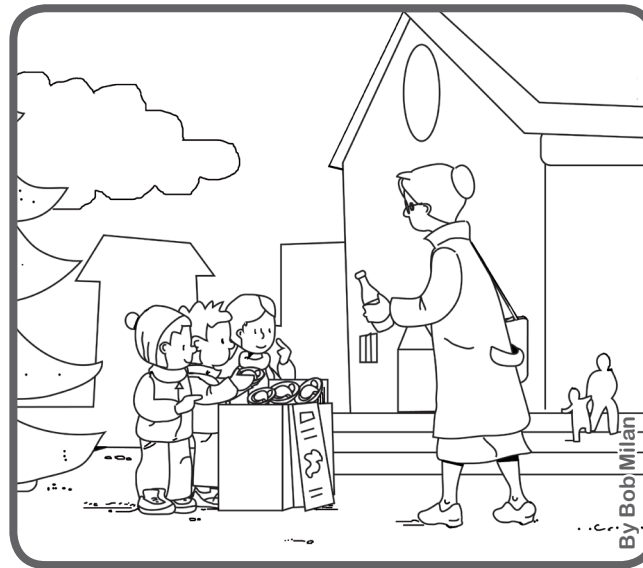

The Gen 4 from Italy tell us:

A few days before Christmas, we were giving people a basket with Baby Jesus in it. A poor man was nearby and we asked him his name. He said, "Marco."

A little while later, a lady came out of the church. We asked her if she wanted to take Baby Jesus home. She suggested we could make a trade – she would give us a bottle of milk and we would give her a Baby Jesus.

We accepted and decided that we could give the milk to Marco. He was very happy and so were we.
