

We are free to love everyone

“Trust in the Lord forever, for in the Lord God you have an everlasting rock.” (Is 26:4)

focolare movement

By Oksar © PAFOM

Prophets are people who tell people how much God loves them. One of these was a man named Isaiah.

By Oksar © PAFOM

Isaiah reminded everyone that when things get hard for us, we should never stop trusting in God. He is always faithful, he never abandons us. He supports us like a strong rock.

By Oksar © PAFOM

If we trust God we will have peace in our hearts and be free to love everyone. Then Jesus will live among us.

By Oksar © PAFOM

“My grandmother’s hand really hurt her and so she couldn’t do anything. I went to her house and helped her to clean, wash the dishes and tidy up everything.

By Oksar © PAFOM

My grandfather couldn’t help because he had to water the plants in the field and also collect all the fruit to be sold.

By Oksar © PAFOM

My grandparents were very happy that I helped them and they thanked me a lot.” (Luisa from Brazil)